Vedanta Desika responds by saying that God is acting in peoples lives for a higher, nobler purpose; thus having faith in the overarching goodness of divine intention makes it possible that evils can be revalued as goods.

Forgive Us Our Trespasses

I think i get the gist of this bit of advice: Be as self reliant as possible: since the greatest shackle a job can have on you is that of money, by reducing your dependence on your job as a means of survival, you become more emotionally liberated, and hence more clear-eyed to see the truth of situations. Whether a new kind of order will finally emerge, with more local legitimacy, remains to be seen.
