Insight Hour with Joseph Goldstein. Not to dwell upon the fact that his whole argument turns upon the existence of Space and Time, and that for the belief in their existence the Universal Postulate is his sole warrant; and only observing, by the way, that the distinction he draws between these and other things, hinges entirely upon conceivableness and inconceivableness; let us go on to remark, that he infers from our inability to conceive the annihilation of Space and Time, joined with our ability to conceive the annihilation of all other things-he infers from these facts, that Space and Time are receptivities, subjective conditions and not objective realities. Pigs have a well-developed frontal cavity so the blow should be aimed slightly above the eyes.
