When I was first taken on-board as Chief Lucidity Officer in one of the first things I was tasked with was taking a good look at our Quotes for the Tired Housewife and giving things a bit of an overhaul. The only drawback was that it was projected on the ROH's curtain, which made it very difficult to read To be honest, I - wrongly - did not realise that the quote was intended to be shown in some way I would not, after all, expect that a synopsis of a Strauss tone poem would be projected around a concert hall.
